VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Throughout my community involvement, I have volunteered in various fields, including healthcare, church, and tax management.

In healthcare, I collaborated with the team to transport patients, deliver meals, and handle clerical tasks. At the church, I actively participated in the choir and served as a lector during worship services. Additionally, I volunteered in tax management, assisting low-income families with tax preparation and providing guidance on taxable income and deductible expenses.

These experiences have strengthened my skills in teamwork, communication, and attention to detail, further fueling my dedication to making a positive impact in my community.
